

Come Visit The Last Resort

Wednesday, 08 April 2009

"Where there are no strangers, only friends you haven't met yet."

What do an Interior Designer, Dentist, Software Sales Executive and Internet Marketing Consultant all have in common? They are all the new shareholders in "The Last Resort of Carolina Beach, Inc."

The Last Resort of Carolina Beach is the holding company for what is considered North Carolina's smallest bar. Nancy Reis, Zach Hunter and Bob and Kim Lewis invite you and your friends to come visit them and experience their special place at the beach as you will find that at their bar "There are no strangers- only friends you haven't met yet."

The Last Resort's tag line has always been "Don't bring your friends, we don't have the room," but the new owners have just expanded the outside garden area and are announcing the opening of the new "Love Shack Cabana." The "Love Shack Cabana" will feature top live entertainment, special member party events, charity fund raising events and a real beach party atmosphere.

Also, check out the new décor at The Last Resort Bar, which is sure to be a favorite of Surfers and Exotic Parrot Lovers alike.

The Last Resort Beach Bar provides a unique Carolina Beach experience where you can just kick back, relax and sit out in the sun, lounge around on the deck or belly up to the bar to meet friends, make new friends, listen to some great music and enjoy the coldest brews on Pleasure Island.

The Last Resort Beach Bar is located at the corners of North Lake Park Blvd and St. Joseph St., steps away from the Carolina Beach Yacht basin and across the street from the world famous Carolina Beach RV Park. Accessible by car, boat, motorcycle, bike or by foot, this Carolina Beach Hot Spot offers lot of fun and all your favorite libations. The bar features a variety of domestic and imported beers, wines, and mixed drinks with great daily specials. Come in and meet Kim, Bob, Zach, and Nancy and what they consider the best bartenders on the beach.